

From Lesley manning

Please read before your reading.

Disclaimer for Private Readings:

This reading is a form of experiment; no claims are made and results cannot be guaranteed. The medium is not here to tell fortunes but to try to give evidence of survival which may include a glimpse from spirit as to the overall situation of the individual at that particular time. She can only give communications received through her own spiritual connection. Life guidance may be offered from the connection established with Spirit and psychically, this is guidance only and cannot be 100% accurate and should not be taken as fact.

This is for entertainment purposes only.

If it becomes clear within the first ten minutes of the reading that a satisfactory communication has not been established or the reading is not going well, then either the medium or sitter may terminate the reading and the fee will be refunded. After this point the sitter is deemed to accept that the sitting is satisfactory. The sitter may see or hear things which they may not have experienced before; if they feel they may be vulnerable they should leave within the first 10 minutes and the fee will be refunded. The sitter certifies that he/she is not aware of any medical or psychiatric condition which might affect her interpretation of the reading and that he/she is voluntarily seeking these services for him/herself and assumes full responsibility for the outcome.

Disclaimer for Workshops, Teach-ins, Seminars, parties, group readings, etc.:

You have paid to take part in a workshop which is in the nature of an experimental educational programme; no claims are made and results cannot be guaranteed. You are not guaranteed a personal message. You may experience things which you may not have experienced before. If any of you feel you may be vulnerable you should leave and your entrance fee will be refunded.

Mental illness

The participant certifies that he/she is not aware of any medical or psychiatric condition which might affect his/her interpretation of the workshop and that he/she is voluntarily seeking these services for him herself and assumes full responsibility for the outcome.

If the participant declares mental illness in the sitting the sitting may be stopped but the charge for the full appointment is applicable.

Hauntings

Some people feel they are being plagued by Ghost's or Spirits. This may be so but it could be that there is an undiagnosed mental illness. The Medium is not a qualified mental health practitioner. If you declare that you do not have any mental health conditions the medium will presume that you have not had a diagnosis of mental illness. The medium cannot guarantee that once they have attended and gone through the process, that all problems will cease.

If information is revealed that indicates that you or a person you mention are in a life threatening situation or any danger, I do have to declare that to the relevant authorities. If you tell me about a crime you or anyone else have committed I must declare this to the relevant authorities.

If you would like further help or information after your reading an appointment needs to be made.

If you are involved in court proceedings I cannot comment on it.

Please be on time for your appointment, unfortunately I won't be able to give extra time if you are late. I will message you and wait 2 to 3 minutes then start the timer. Be aware that a 30 or 45 minute appointment will not resolve all the issues in your life.

If you are seeking advice about relationships (love life), please be aware I can only give what I get psychically and from Spirit.

Zoom, skype and Phone

Please make sure your signal is good and your equipment is working properly. If you have problems I cannot always make up the time as I have other appointments.
